MOTION FOR LEAVE
TO ACCEPT LATE FILED
NOTICE OF APPEARANCE

On April 22, 1996 the College of Southern Idaho received the ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AND HEARING DESIGNATION ORDER. The College of Southern Idaho responded to this request on May 14 (see attached copy); however, because this first response was not directed to the presiding judge nor did it meet the requirements of the court, the College of Southern Idaho filed a motion for leave to accept late filed notice of appearance on June 4. Subsequently, the College of Southern Idaho has been informed that required copies of the motion were not sent to the Secretary's office of the FCC. It was not our intent to be unresponsive, but rather was the result of misunderstanding the process. Having been informed of our responsibilities in this matter, we are requesting that the court accept our late filed notice of appearance.

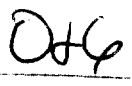

Respectfully submitted,
College of Southern Idaho

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AND HEARING DESIGNATION ORDER
MM Docket No. 96-91

SUBJECT: KEZJ (AM) FCC File Number BAL-9309070EC

The College of Southern Idaho acquired the KEZJ (AM) license on November 22, 1993. At that point the College of Southern Idaho was working with the Idaho State Board of Education in developing a program in mass communications where the students will use the station as a worksite. Present developments allowed for the College to start procedures to put the station on-air with a target date no later than January 1, 1997. The College of Southern Idaho would sincerely appreciate the Federal Communications Commission giving the College the latitude to continue this development so we can have the station on air by January 1, 1997.

We have enclosed the signed certification required with the request to remain silent until January 1, 1997.

Sincerely,

Gerald L. Beck, Ed.D.
Vice President of Instruction
